ANTI-CHINESE.

The Grand Demonstration on the Pacific Coast.

Enthusiastic Meetings in San Francisco and San Diego—San Bernardino also sends greeting.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 4.—The anti-Chinese demonstration this afternoon was on a grand scale. Long before the hour fixed, Platt's Hall was packed with the best citizens, while a crowd of probably thirty thousand surged about the stands erected on Montgomery and Pine streets. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion with the national colors. At 2 o'clock the meeting was called to order by Jacob S. Taber, President of the Board of Trade, who read a long list of Vice-Presidents, composed of the leading citizens in every department of business, including all the judges of the United States and State courts. In a few words Mr. Taber introduced Mayor Blake as the presiding officer. Mr. Blake spoke briefly, dwelling upon the importance of appealing to the good judgment and sense of propriety of the nation. After a short address by Hon. Philip A. Roach, W. E. Sheridan, the actor, read Governor Perkins' proclamation appointing a legal holiday and a letter expressing the inability of the Governor to be present and his entire sympathy with the demonstration. The Chairman read the following dispatch from Governor Kinkaid of Nevada: "Nevada unites with your people to-day. Meetings will be held in all towns of this State to give expression to popular opinion." Mr. Sheridan then read the resolutions prepared for the occasion. The preamble recites the ruinous consequences of Chinese immigration and concludes: "The people of San Francisco in general mass meeting assembled do therefore solemnly reiterate and reaffirm the unanswered and unanswerable arguments heretofore made in their previous petitions to Congress for relief, and they further respectfully urge that time and experience have but confirmed their apprehensions as to the grave dangers that would arise from unrestricted Chinese immigration. It is therefore resolved, That laying aside all social and political distinctions, we unite as one man, as one people, as loyal and law-abiding citizens of this republic, in urging upon Congress the absolute necessity for speedy and effective legislation pursuant to the terms of the recent treaty with China restricting and controlling Chinese immigration. Be it further resolved, That our Senators and Representatives from this Coast have our entire approval and hearty and united support in their efforts to present this great question to the country as of vital importance and deserving of immediate and favorable action on the part of the federal government. Be it further resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be telegraphed to our Senators and Representatives in Congress." The resolutions were greeted with enthusiasm and adopted. The Chairman then read a dispatch from Senator Farley expressing confidence in the passage of the anti-Chinese Bill. The meeting was then addressed by Judge J. S. Hager, M. M. Este, Irving M. Scott, Paul Newman, John F. Swift, ex-Treaty Commissioner to China; Wm. T. Coleman, Horace Davis, George Flornay, Dr. J. C. Shorby, Rev. C. T. Barrows, E. C. Marshall, Henry E. Highton, John P. Jackson, Frank J. Sullivan, Thomas J. Clunie, Robert H. Taylor, George A. Knight, A. P. Van Duzen, James H. Barry, Wm. B. May, Marcus D. Boruck, E. B. Stonehall, Peter Deane, C. W. Pope, David McClellan, L. E. Pratt, A. P. Williams, Geo. K. Porter, Walter H. Levy, H. N. Clement, John A. Wright, B. V. Watson, Leader Quint, E. D. Wheeler, C. A. Sumner, Henry Wolfson, D. J. Tooly, some of the gentlemen speaking in the hall and others addressing the crowds in the street. The speeches were characterized by moderation and dignity of tone and calm argument, reviewing in a number of cases the positions taken by the opponents of the measure now before Congress. During the meeting a procession of working men escorting a number of children in a wagon bearing the motto, "Shall our boys and girls or Chinamen have California?" passed through the crowd on Montgomery street, and was received with applause. The demonstration throughout was conducted with the greatest decorum, becoming to the deliberate expression of the sentiment of all classes of the city irrespective of business or politics. Business was closed for the day, and the observance of the holiday was general. Dispatches are pouring in from the interior showing that similar demonstrations have been held throughout California and Nevada.

COOLIES COMING.

A Portland dispatch says a California Associated Press agent was informed by a Chinese merchant and contractor that arrangements were now being made at Hong Kong to ship from five to ten thousand coolies to Portland before the anti-Chinese bill, if passed, can take effect. Three English steamers, with a carrying capacity of twenty-five hundred passengers, and several sailing vessels are already chartered and the work of gathering coolies has commenced. These importations are designed for the service of the Northern Pacific Railroad.

SAN DIEGO'S VOICE.

SAN DIEGO, March 4.—Business was suspended here at 2 p. m. and the people turned out en masse in response to a call of the Chamber of Commerce to take action on the Chinese bill. S. Levi, President of the Chamber of Commerce, called the meeting to order. Hon. E. T. Blackmer was chosen President and Dr. David Cave Secretary. The meeting was addressed by Mr. Blackmer, Judge M. A. Luce, Hon. W. Bowers, Wallace Leach and E. W. Hendrick. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

1st. That the perpetuity of this Republic demands the preservation and maintenance of the distinctive social system, which is based upon the American family and the American home.

2d. That all free labor is honorable and should neither be cheapened nor degraded. That cheap labor produces national poverty, and servile labor is destructive of Republican institutions.

3d. That we oppose Chinese immigration not because of the race or color of those immigrants, but because they bring hither and maintain a social system utterly at variance with our own—a system which builds no homes and rears no families, which makes woman an article of merchandise and a man a human machine; because the introduction of cheap coolie labor creates a degrading competition, which, while it may enrich a few great capitalists, impoverishes the masses, whose toil constitutes the true wealth of the state, and results in class distinction, subversive of our theory of government.

4th. That the effects of Chinese immigration already is seriously felt upon this coast and is a sufficient warning to the whole country of the danger of permitting it to continue, and we ask our fellow-citizens in the Eastern States who have not the knowledge of experience in this matter to give heed to our urgent appeal for restriction.

5th. That the Senators and Representatives in Congress from the Pacific States have the hearty thanks of the whole people for their labors to secure restrictive legislation, and that we pray them to relax no effort to secure the early passage of the act now pending. The meeting, although one of the largest ever held in the city, was dignified and orderly throughout, all the speeches being characterized by a calm and argumentative tone.

GENERAL NEWS.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

South Carolina Politics.
COLUMBIA, March 4.—The Republican Conference adjourned last night. It is understood that no State ticket will be put up, but that the Republicans will coalesce with the disaffected Democrats and make a sharp struggle for seats in the Legislature and for county officers.

Unfinished Monitors.
PHILADELPHIA, March 4.—The Congressional Naval Committee inspected to-day at Wilmington and Chester the unfinished monitors. They seemed to be of the general opinion that the monitors could be fitted up some way if only for the purpose of harbor defense.

The Tramps.
NEW YORK, March 4.—At 12 o'clock p. m. the crowd stood: Hazel, 540 miles; Fitzgerald, 516; Norem, 496; Hart, 488; Hughes, 470; Sullivan, 462. At 9 o'clock the crowd stood: Hazel, 598; Sullivan, 529; Norem, 555; Hughes, 535; Fitzgerald, 575; Hart, 542. At 9:11 Hazel completed his six hundredth mile, and the champion and Fitzgerald were stopped in front of the scorer's stand, where Hazel received a few whips.

2 P. M.—Hazel, 584; Sullivan, 511; Norem, 542; Hughes, 523; Fitzgerald, 562; Hart, 532.

Serious Fire in Toledo.
TOLEDO, O., March 4.—A serious fire is raging here. The Western Union Telegraph Office is destroyed, and the particulars cannot be telegraphed.

Six Men Killed.
FORT WAYNE, March 4.—At Stone, Randolph county, this State, a boiler in Wester & Barnes' handle factory exploded yesterday with terrible force, killing six men.

A Defrauding Grain Operator.
KEOKUK, Ia., March 4.—W. N. Sturges, of Chicago, a prominent grain operator, was arrested here to-night on the charge of defrauding Francis L. Kennett & Co. of Chicago out of 50,000 worth of grain that was stored in a Keokuk grain elevator when Sturges was its proprietor. He was indicted by the Grand Jury to-day.

Forcing Their Pay.
PEORIA, Ill., March 4.—Fifty of the employees of the Wabash Railroad last night switched the pay car on the side track and threatened to retain it until two months' wages due were paid them. On the guarantee of the District Superintendent, however, that the wages should be paid Monday, they allowed the car to proceed.

To Appear Before the Grand Jury.
NEWARK, N. J., March 4.—Director Condit of the First National Bank was called in $50,000 to appear before the U. S. Grand Jury in April.

Death in a Mine.
ISHPEMING, Mich., March 4.—Falling earth in the Lethian mine last night killed two men and wounded others.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

A Sensible Article on the Chinese Question.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The National Republican among its editorial paragraphs to-day has the following: Almost the entire population of the Pacific Slope, including the clergy, the literati, the churches and the leading men and women of every walk of life are hostile to Chinese immigration. This fact is sufficient to outweigh the garrulous gush of sentimentalists who have no practical knowledge of the subject. The Christians and philanthropists of California are quite as likely to be right in the matter that lies at their doors as their brethren three or four thousand miles away. The Chinese are the only class of immigrants who compete directly with the working women of the United States in the few occupations by which a poor and unlearned woman may earn bread for herself or her children.

THE DIPLOMATIC CONSPIRACY CHARGE.
The Senate and House Special Committees on the Chile-Peruvian diplomatic scandal begin their inquiry on Monday. Kasson, on the part of the House Committee, and Windom, on the part of the Senate, assert that the inquiry is to be thorough and fearless. Blaine will be examined, and his friends appear entirely confident that nothing can come out of it to damage him.

STABBED TO THE HEART.
A fight between two colored boot-blacks resulted in Henry Craig, aged 14, being stabbed to the heart with a penknife and dying instantly.

AMENDING THE RULES.
In the House Committee on Rules a warm argument was had on Reed's amendment. The Democrats threatened to filibuster against their adoption, and it was agreed to give the Democrats time to prepare and submit substitutes.

MORE STAR ROUTE INDICTMENTS.
The Grand Jury has indicted James B. Henderson, James W. Donohue, Wm. M. Jackson, Albert E. Boone, Samuel G. Cobell, Edwin J. Sweet, Wm. S. Barringer and Alvin C. Buck for conspiracy in star route cases concerning certain routes in Southern States.

Worse than Represented.
WASHINGTON, March 4.—Governor Crittenden, of Missouri, telegraphs the Secretary of War to increase the rations already ordered for the sufferers by the floods. The misery is worse than represented.

COAST DISPATCHES.

Governor Kinkaid on the Chinese.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 4th.—A Reno dispatch says that Governor John H. Kinkaid, of Nevada, issued a proclamation last night in which he expressed the earnest hope that all citizens of that State will unite with those of California and Oregon in giving full expression to their views on the subject of Chinese immigration, and will urge upon Congress the importance of speedy and favorable action on the bill now before that body. He concludes by saying: "The practical unanimity of the vote on the question at the last election in Nevada justifies me in expecting a prompt and enthusiastic response to the call."

SAN FRANCISCO DEMONSTRATION.
The anti-Chinese demonstration this afternoon bids fair to be a great success. There is quite a general suspension of business and the streets are alive with people waiting for the exercises to begin. Three stands have been erected in Montgomery street between Pine and Bush. Flags are stretched across the street and all the preparations are complete.

SAN BERNARDINO JOINS THE THRONO.
SAN BERNARDINO, March 4.—In response to the request of Mayor Blake, the Democratic and Republican County Committee met to-day and adopted the following: "San Bernardino county joins the rest of the State in unanimously urging upon Congress the immediate passage of the act limiting the immigration of Chinese to this Coast." This resolution echoes the sentiment of the entire community, and none are more emphatic in its indorsement than our leading business men. They recognize the fact that we cannot look for an influx of white immigrants so much as needed to build up our agricultural interests until the flood from China is stopped.

ARIZONA AND SONORA.

Indian Items—Railroad Rumble—Reception to Sherman.

TUCSON, March 4.—The forty Indian scout prisoners at Fort Lowell, who were implicated in the Cibola outbreak, will be returned to San Carlos to-day and set at liberty. Their capture, detention and transfer has cost the Government over fifteen thousand dollars, and although the evidence was conclusive of their participation in the outbreak, no effort was made to enforce a legal examination into the facts or any measures adopted to punish them. The general feeling is that a great mistake is made in returning them to the reservation, as they have boasted that the white man would not dare to punish them, and they will go back and

ACT MORE INSOLENT.

And become more unmanageable than ever. They will be under the escort of twenty soldiers.

ATTACKED BY APACHES.

A Tucson dispatch reports from Sonora that the town of Nacori, containing several hundred inhabitants, was attacked by Apaches and three were killed on each side. The courier who left for assistance heard heavy firing shortly after leaving.

THE GUAYMAS ROAD.

News from Magdalena, Sonora, is to the effect that the Guaymas road is completed to one hundred miles north of Hermosillo, at which point connection is made with the stage lines of Arizona. Governor Ortiz has expressed himself strongly in favor of the construction of the Tucson and Port Lobos Railroad, and has issued an order to all minor officials near the line of the proposed survey to give all possible aid and information to the railroad engineers.

Arrangements will be made to give the General Sherman party a grand reception in Tucson.

THE NEW DEPARTURE.

A new schedule for passenger trains has been ordered. Trains coming east will arrive in Tucson thirty minutes later than now, and at Deming the same time as now. Trains going west will arrive at Yuma thirty minutes later than now. Both of these changes will accommodate passengers, as it will give breakfast at six at each place.

A large addition is being put up to the railroad hotel here on account of the largely increased travel.

CHANGE OF BASE.

The work of changing the Southern Pacific Railroad track from the Cienega is now going on. It will be constructed on the mesa lands there, avoiding the floods of summer. The length of the change will be about three miles.

NEW BUILDINGS.

Bowie Station, on the S. P. R. R., is assuming the appearance of a busy town. A large hotel is in full blast, and a round house, machine shop and other railroad buildings are in course of construction. This is the end of a freight division and the distributing point for Globe, San Carlos, Thomas, Fort Apache, Bowie, Gila valley and Clifton. There is a large supply of excellent water.

The jury in the case of Dolliver, after having been out some hours and not being able to agree, was discharged last night.

Mormon Propagandism.

SALT LAKE, March 4.—Statistics show that nearly 3,000 foreigners were brought here by the Mormons in 1881.

Boy Drowned.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 4.—Henry Martin, a lad aged twelve years, was drowned yesterday in Mission Creek under shocking circumstances. It appears that a scavenger named Augustin Lackinno wanted to set a large, savage dog after the boy, who, in great fright, ran into the stream to escape the animal. He got beyond his depth and was drowned. Lackinno has been arrested on the charge of manslaughter.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

McLean a Discharged Lunatic.
LONDON, March 4.—The police have ascertained that McLean was formerly in Wells' Lunatic Asylum, and was only discharged in September last.

Proclamation of Thanks.
LONDON, March 4.—It is expected that the Queen will cause a proclamation to be issued returning thanks to the British and foreign press for the heartiness of the expressions of congratulatory upon her escape from death at the hand of the assassin.

Balloon Disaster.
LONDON, March 4.—A balloon which made an ascension fell in the sea at Dover. The aeronauts perished.

SANTA ANA ITEMS.

[Standard.]
H. B. S. Davis and wife, of Los Angeles, have rented the large new room in the Layman block and will open a confectionery and a millinery store in a short time.

M. H. Newmark, of the firm of H. Newmark & Co., Los Angeles, was in Santa Ana last Saturday. He is on a business tour through the southeastern section of the county, for the above named well-known firm.

A club has just been formed in Santa Ana for the purpose of affording amusement to its members during their spare time. We predict for it a success. Certainly something of the kind has long been needed here. More will shortly be made known concerning it.

We have had several refreshing showers during the past week, and when it did not rain we have had heavy fog, amounting to the importance, almost, of "Scotch mist." It is dark and lowering, as we close our forms, and there is every probability of a deluge before the month of March is over. The farmers are all busy sowing grain and plowing up the rank weeds which have so suddenly made their appearance. The grand scene is over, thank goodness.

VACCINATION—THE OTHER SIDE.

Henry Bergh is running a tilt against the vaccination doctors and theory, and makes a terrible showing against the Jenner theory, which he characterizes as "that hideous monstrosity." It is probably another case of disagreement, and we do not propose to solve the riddle of "who shall decide when doctors disagree?" and we allude to it only because we find Bergh's remarks in the very respectable company of the North American review, which circumstance will certainly entitle them to a hearing.

Among other authorities Bergh quotes Verde de Lisle, a French writer, who says: "Vaccination has caused mental and physical degeneration of the human species; diminished men's stature; incapacitated them for the fatigues of military service, or even the exercise of dancing." Now this is a terribly rough blow at a theory the medical faculty have almost unanimously voted is the cure-all as a prevention to fatality in cases of smallpox. And if De Lisle has been behind the curtain he can know more of the ways of the medical than we, their unwilling subjects, who will sympathize with a quotation from Dr. Bigelow of Massachusetts: "I am certain that the unbiased opinion of most medical men of science and sound judgment and long experience is, that the amount of death and disease in the world would be less if all disease were left to itself." Bigelow is Shakespearean and would "throw physic to the dogs."

Bergh asserts that Jenner "inflicted upon the human race one of the most grievous injuries the world has ever experienced." And to prove this in part he draws upon the statistics of the epidemic. He says since 1853, and while vaccination has been the order of the day, there have been three epidemics of smallpox in Great Britain, viz:

Date.	Deaths.
1856, '8, '9.	14,244
1863, '4, '5.	20,059
1870, '1, '2.	44,840

The increase of population between the first and the second epidemic was seven per cent. The increase in smallpox mortality was nearly fifty per cent. Between the second and third epidemics, the population increased ten per cent, and the smallpox mortality one hundred and twenty per cent!

Vaccination, says Bergh, spreads disease. Among other testimony he quotes from the Vaccination Inquirer of London:—"A company of French soldiers were vaccinated last December—fifty-eight of them by the regimental doctor, from a Spanish child. In a few days the whole of them, without exception, were infected with a horrible nameless disease."

Mr. Bergh's conclusion is not hopeful for the human family to be rid of the dangerous practice of vaccination, for though many physicians in their consciences disapprove of the practice they dare not give expression to their honest judgment, for fear of being ostracized by their fellow men. If "this is true 'tis pity, and pity 'tis 'tis true," Bergh's article should lead to an effort to obtain more light on the very important subject of which he treats.

SUNDAY READING.

We continue some selections from the article on the christian religion, from which we published extracts last Sunday. The writer would combat the idea somewhat prevalent, and which, of course, is the only animus of the opposition to christianity, that it is, per se, a bane, a damage. The cruel deeds of tyrants are often quoted as reasons why we should not support the religion of the Bible, and it cannot be denied that religion has been the occasion of incalculable suffering. We would cite the European wars of the seventeenth century, which had their origin largely in religious dissension. But remembering the other side of the picture, to cite these circumstances against christianity is not just. These evils only prove how deeply planted in the human breast is the reverence for some religious system. To ignore the beautiful in religion because evil has come to the world through the fanaticism of a few believers would be no more sensible than trying to get rid of the nervous system because of our afflictions from sciatica and neuralgia? Apply the same sort of reasoning, which is used against religion to the passion of love as between the sexes. Who can measure the agony of which it has been the occasion—the corroding jealousies, the frantic rage, abiding rancour, adulteries, self-murder and sanguinary wars? To argue that religion is a curse is like contending that domestic life and human government are a curse. And the writer closes his argument on this point with the following well put questions: "What is there bad in religion? Religion is love to God and men. What more is required by religion but 'to do justly and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?' This is religion, even according to an Old Testament definition. Is this harmful to the individual who practices it? Is it hurtful to a neighborhood or to a civil community? Would it be bad for farmers, merchants, artisans, for young people or old people, or any other class? Are penitence for evil doing, trust in a Heavenly Father who is more willing to bless than is an earthly parent, the conforming of one's life to the purest example, in which righteousness and love are perfect and perfectly blended, mischievous? Is it mischievous to resist temptation and to pray to God for help in the conflict, and for aid in becoming unselfish? Yet these are essential ingredients in practical christianity, and christianity has nothing in it incompatible with them, but everything else in christianity is auxiliary to them."

The Old Testament is mainly a history of the idolatrous nations of the olden time. But among them lived the Jews, and to the latter were the Commandments given. Christianity sprang up among the Jews. Religion was the one absorbing idea and interest of that people as it never has been of any other. The Son of Man is the Son of David. And the spirit of kindness and love that pervades the Sermon on the Mount has its parallel in the Jewish customs and manners of olden times. Of the Bible nations the Jew alone left in his field the seed of grain for the gleaner, and in the vineyard the bunch of grapes for the needy.

Christianity came into the world with a new commandment, "to love one another." It brought in the principle of the brotherhood of man. It broke down the barriers of country and clan. It gathered the Greek and barbarian, the rich and the poor, the freeman and the slave, about the Lord's table, where all differences were merged in a fraternal unity. The Christian churches were eleemosynary societies. They dispensed alms with an open hand to their own poor and to the needy about them.

Concluding our extracts for to-day we quote the practical test to which the charge that religion is a bane may be submitted. Let any one imagine the best and most faithful Christian, measured by the New Testament standard, whom he knows, to be deprived of his religion altogether, or even of such elements in it as are the exclusive result of the Gospel, and then let him ask himself if his manhood would be improved by the change, and if his influence in the aggregate would be for the better. Then let the same person imagine the entire community to be stripped of the churches, hospitals, schools, the customs of private prayer and household religious teachings—stripped in a word, of all beliefs, habits, feelings, institutions, laws, so far as their origin is due to the Gospel of Christ as taught in the New Testament, and then let him judge of himself whether the change would be salutary, or whether, in case the Gospel had not borne these fruits, anything else equally desirable would have grown up in the room of them. Let him make up the account, putting in the column opposite to the benefits of Christianity whatever of evil he thinks has come from it, or would have been prevented without it. Let him make the calculation for himself, and render an honest verdict.

PUBLIC PARKS.

The want of public parks, places of relaxation where the multitudes who throng the streets may repair for a breathing spell, will be seriously felt in the after years of this city if they are not now provided. What more enjoyable in strolling about a city than to come upon an oasis of cheerful green in the desert of bricks and mortar. It relaxes the tension of the whole frame of man, it is restful, it adds to life's pleasures, it makes the world seem more bright and beautiful, and even adds days to a man's life. The provision for such parks have been seriously neglected, and every year such neglect is continued adds to the improbability of their being provided and the difficulties and expense of procuring suitable grounds are vastly increased. The Times would suggest the propriety of condemning the property whereon now stands the curse of the city—Chinatown—and enlarge the plaza in front of the Pico House so as to include all that portion. Los Angeles street there becomes very wide, much wider than the demands of business require, and at least an acre or two of ground, in a triangular shape, could be availed of for the purposes of a park. It would be a splendid investment for the city, even if a costly one.

Sad Death.

The family of Charles E. Miles is sorely afflicted in the loss of a daughter, Miss Lulu, aged 13 years and three months. She was sick one week with typhoid pneumonia. The numerous acquaintances of Mr. Miles and his amiable wife will sympathize deeply with them in the loss that has cast so deep a gloom over their household. Funeral from the residence of the family on Fort Street, at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and
